The Tyranny Of Words: Chase, Stuart: 9780156923941: Amazon ... Stuart Chase's "Tyranny of Words" is one of the easier introductions to the applied philosophy of language. The book makes four major points that I'd like to mention here: 1) It introduces the reader to Korzybski's idea of general-semantics as first discussed in his "Science and Sanity". Korzybski major realization was that words always need to refer to something in existence: the map is not the territory. The Tyranny of Words by Stuart Chase - Goodreads Stuart Chase (1888–1985) was an economist and social theorist.
